

Gregory J. Laskody – Bio

Gregory J. Laskody, CCIM, has over 30 years of commercial real estate experience throughout the South Florida market, with extensive expertise in investment sales, real estate mortgage and investment banking, and valuation. Collectively, he has been involved in over $2.0BB of commercial real estate transactions since graduating from the renowned and nationally-ranked Real Estate program of the College of Business at The Florida State University.

Throughout his career, he has held senior leadership and management positions with some of the most notable companies in commercial real estate, such as: Deloitte; Nomura Capital; Wells Fargo, Q10 Capital; Newmark Grubb Knight Frank, and most recently as Senior Vice President of Capital Markets with Colliers International. In addition to being a Certified Commercial Investment Member (“CCIM”) of the CCIM Institute, he is also a former Member of the Appraisal Institute (“MAI”), and previously was a licensed mortgage broker, a state-certified general real estate appraiser, and a general real estate appraisal instructor, all in the State of Florida. In addition, he was also an Adjunct Professor of Real Estate Studies at Miami-Dade College.

Greg joined the Boca Raton office of CRE Florida Partners in August 2018 as a Senior Vice President of Investment Sales and Capital Markets, predominantly focusing on: 1) investment sales, and; 2) realty capital origination, structuring, and procurement - the majority of which is focused on the South Florida tri-county market area (Miami-Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach Counties). His exceptionally diverse background in the industry presents a deep level of market knowledge and financial advisory experience that is a significant value-add to his diverse client base that includes:

- Financial institutions and financial advisors
- Insurance companies
- Pension funds and institutional investors
- Mortgage servicers
- Legal, public accounting, and financial planning firms
- Governmental agencies and entities
- Private property owners
- Property managers and asset managers
- Public and private investment groups (“Wall Street” firms, and equity/hedge funds)
- Family Offices
- High- and Ultra-High Net Worth Investors
- Developers

Greg was also a Conference Committee Member of The Florida State University’s Center for Real Estate Education and Research from 2011 through 2015. He has also been a panelist and speaker at various local, state-wide, and regional commercial real estate events.

He graduated with a bachelor’s degree in Real Estate and Finance from The Florida State University in 1988. Since graduating, he has successfully completed more than 60 real-estate related courses and seminars sponsored by the Appraisal Institute, the CCIM Institute, accredited universities, and others.
